DEVOTION - Be Like Sandy!

submitted by: Julie Urich

"Let all that I. am praise the Lord; with my whole heart, I will praise his holy name." Psalm 103:1 {GNT}.

At the time I knew three things about Sandy. She was fun and she loved Jesus and music. When she came to me and said that she really wanted to join the choir and asked if she could sing with them for Christmas, I quickly replied, "Yes, we would love to have you join us!" She then told me that she only had one note, H-flat. (For you non-musical folks, there is NO H-flat!)

I learned a lesson that day. You may think that it was to not answer so quickly, but it wasn't. I was reminded that God doesn't ask for perfection. He doesn't look and listen to us through a critic's eyes and ears. He sees our heart! He hears with love! He wants US!

How many times have you avoided helping with something at church because you didn't feel "qualified"?
You wouldn't be perfect? Maybe it's in children's ministry. Maybe the worship team. Maybe even the choir! I would ask you the same thing I asked Sandy that day. Will you use your H-flat to the glory of God? Will YOU (fill in the blank) to the glory of God? What's stopping you? Do it! Trust God and let Him take care of the rest.

Oh, and Sandy did sing with choir that year. She was maybe even the "star". Not with her H-flat but with the glow on her face as she gave God all her praise.

CHOIR REHEARSAL Hope to see you there...

I am ... the Good Shepherd

This metaphor is seen a lot in the culture and, though a powerful one, I think we miss part of it's profound nature since we are, by in large, not an agricultural society like they were in the first century.
We'll dig this meaning out more and see what Jesus means.

If you haven't already ...

Please take a moment to return the "Breeze Text Messaging Approval Form".

Call the office if you missed the email.

Thanks to the many responses thus far!
