DEVOTION - Are You Disconnected from God?

submitted by: Savanah Gammon

Have you ever watched the light in someone's eyes die? The joy that God placed there seems to dim. Their excitement of life and serving God becomes a distant person that seeps with feelings that make you extremely uneasy. Has it been you? Have you gone from being joyful and content and connected with God to a depressed, desperate, wounded, angry, and hard on yourself and others person?

Deuteronomy 31:8. God seems to be distant despite reminding yourself that God promises never to leave you nor forsake you. "Do not be afraid or discouraged, for the Lord will personally go ahead of you. He will be with you; He will neither fail you nor abandon you."

2 Corinthians 3:17 NLT. Emptiness isn't uncommon in today's world. But is God's plan to rob you of joy? NO! God gave you His spirit, one of peace and freedom. "For the Lord is the Spirit, and wherever the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom."

1 Thessalonians 5:11 NLT. But right now, you don't feel peace or freedom. In fact, you may be angry, discouraged, lost, lonely, and trapped. But I promise you if you trust God, ask the right questions to the right people on how to deal with the disconnection you feel with God, time has proven God will show up on the scene for you! But what about the brothers and sisters in Christ? What should we do for them? "So, encourage each other and build each other up, just as you are already doing."

We need to do these things! Because this is a whole world, some who know Jesus and some do not, that are hurting, bleeding out. But here's the thing, it starts with the next person you see. That one person that is hurting because you did or said or didn't say or do. They came to you and trusted you. Or they just needed a ear or a heart or a hand or a prayer or love or acceptance or validation or be told about the awesome love of God or whatever it may be. They laid their heart out. What are you going to do? What would Jesus do or would want you to do?
