DEVOTION - WAIT IN STILLNESS

Cease striving and know that I am God. — Psalm 46:10

Today, the pressure to move forward may be overwhelming. But if God has not spoken to you, stay where you are. It is inherently dangerous to act in haste. You may feel tempted to reason everything out in your mind and figure out all the unknowns — as if it depends on you to engineer a solution. But the Lord does not need your assistance.

In fact, the adage, "God helps those who help themselves" is not biblical. Instead, what Scripture says is, "Trust in the LORD with all your heart and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him, and He will make your paths straight" (Proverb 3:5-6). God sets your course. So stop wrestling with Him for control. Instead, as today's verse instructs, cease striving and trust His all-powerful, all-knowing, unconditionally loving plan.

The Father knows that you cannot help yourself in this situation. He realizes the pressure you feel and how important all of this is to you. But as long as you're trying to orchestrate a solution, you will miss what He is doing. So be still and quiet in His presence. Lay down your efforts and simply trust Him. Not only will He direct your path, but He will do so in ways beyond what you can imagine.

"Jesus, You are God. I wait in stillness for Your wise direction. Amen"
